Abstract. This is a paper that is in preparation that should be ready soon assuming I might not be distracted by another project or just life (i.e., taking my son out to a museum!). Perhaps this is a good place to put blame on a student for not having done (just joking). Nevertheless, whatever paper this is, it should soon be on arXiv and/or simply under review without current pre-print. If you are interested, please reach out to me and will be happy to discuss.

Keywords: something most likely about geometry, but maybe not
